

The Advanced Horsemanship Clinic

Few things are more rewarding for me than having a successful horsemanship clinic filled with enthusiastic participants. The Van Hargis Advanced Horsemanship Clinic recently hosted in Victoria, TX was just that...rewarding. Each participant brought with them great attitudes and an eagerness to learn and advance their horsemanship understanding. For me it was fun and appreciated beyond measure. It is truly exciting for me to witness folks improving both their understanding and practice of sound fundamental horsemanship. At our recent October Advanced Horsemanship Clinic participants worked diligently on learning the mechanics of proper lead departures by learning the importance of straightness while controlling their horse's nose, hips and shoulders. What a blast I had watching each student make great
